

Dear Sirs:

Please do not turn our airways over to the wealthiest few in our nation. Our democracy depends on diversity, truth, and fairness, and having the media in the hands of a few does not give the public a balance in coverage, or access to all info available, only what the owners wish to communicate. That is a step toward totalitarianism !